Upper Deschutes River. From Cascade Lakes Hwy, turn east on paved Road 40, then drive 0.4 miles to a signed turnoff to "Cow Meadow" on the right. Drive 1 mile south to a "T" junction and turn left (east). Go 0.4 miles to the Cow Meadow Bridge and park here.

Cultus River. From the Cascade Lakes Hwy, turn west at the Road 40 junction. Follow this good road west for 0.2 miles to a gravel parking area at the site of the former bridge. For the best chance of seeing bald eagles, don't drive right up to the crossing, but park 50 yards away and approach quietly on foot.

Quinn River. From the Cascade Lakes Hwy, turn east at the sign for the Quinn River Campground. Go about 100 yards to the campground turnoff on the right. Drive south through the campground to its far southern end and park at the "Osprey Point Trail" sign. Follow this trail for about 30 yards south to the headwaters springs and trail down the Quinn River.
